Train down on extended run

The train's extended run, expected to begin any day now, however, is stuck as the board is still contemplating the fare structure, ministry sources indicate.

The difference in speed limits is making their task difficult. The present fare for travelling in an executive class is ₹1,505 and a booking for AC chair car costs ₹755 between Delhi and Agra.

Pakistan bans charities linked to Hafiz Saeed

REUTERS
Islamabad, February 14

Authorities had begun seizing control of offices and financial assets of the charities, an official said particular concern of the United States.

Punjab province's law minister Rana Sanaullah said the central ministry of interior had issued a notification against the two charities, the Jamaat-ud-Dawa (JuD) and Falah-e-Insaniyat Foundation (FIF), this week.

"We have received the interior ministry directions, and according to that, Hafiz Saeed and his charities, like JuD and FIF, have been banned to operate in Pakistan," Sanaullah said.

The United States has labelled JuD and FIF "terrorist fronts" for Lashkar-e-Taiba, a group Saeed founded in 1987 that the United States and India blame for the attacks on Mumbai.

PAKISTAN HAS BANNED two charities linked to Islamist leader Hafiz Saeed, an official said on Wednesday, in a move against the UN-designated terrorist who the United States says was behind an attack on Mumbai in 2008 that killed 166 people.

Authorities had begun seizing control of offices and financial assets of the charities, another official said.

The action comes days before a meeting by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF), a global money laundering watchdog, which will consider a US-sponsored motion to place Pakistan on a list of countries failing to prevent terrorism financing.

The operations in Pakistan of Saeed's extensive network — which includes 300 seminars and schools, hospitals, a publishing house and ambulance services — has been a
